Powell, OH: The City of Powell and Kinsale Golf and Fitness Club are bringing a bit of the Emerald Isle to Kinsale as they collaborate on the second annual St. Patrick's Party.

This year's family-friendly party will be Sunday, March 14 from noon to 5 p.m. at Kinsale, located at 3737 Village Club Drive in Powell. The event will feature Irish dancers, bagpipe players, food, beer, face painting, balloon artists, live performances from Irish rock band The Mickeys and more.

"Last year's party was a huge success, and we knew then that we wanted to make this an annual event," said Jeff Robinson, public information officer for the City of Powell. "Kinsale has stepped up to the plate again this year, with a bigger tent and plenty of fun activities planned for the day."

The event is free and open to the public; no Kinsale membership is necessary to attend. In conjunction with the festivities, Kinsale is collecting food donations through March for the Mid-Ohio Foodbank. Non-perishable food items may be dropped off at the Kinsale clubhouse lobby, Powell Municipal Building (47 Hall St.) and any of the following locations: Kroger stores in Powell, Dublin and Worthington; the Kroger Marketplace on Sawmill Road; Frank Wealth Management Group; the Sprint store in the Kroger Marketplace shopping center; and Artina Promotional Products in Powell.

Kinsale has expanded the celebration this year to include activities on Saturday, March 13, beginning with a St. Patrick's Day 4-Miler race at 5 p.m. The race will be followed at 7 p.m. by a concert by the Reaganomics at Kinsale (adults only). To register for the race, log on to www.stpatricksdays4miler.com.
