

This year, the City of Powell has new peddler/solicitor regulations in place. In the interest of community safety, anyone wishing to work as a peddler/solicitor within the City limits must fill out and submit a permit form at least three days prior to the solicitation date, and pay a one-time fee of $75.

The permit form must be submitted in person to the Powell Police Department, 47 Hall St. A background check will be conducted before a permit is issued. The City has already received several permit applications. To date, the following have been approved for a peddler/solicitor license:

Name	Company/Organization
Juan Marcano, Mark Davis	Edward Jones Investments
Vincent Risner	Lawn care
William Crowder	Furniture sales on behalf of Tim Lane
Logan R. Dilts, Cory Michaud,	Certapro Painters
Amanda Pelletier, Sarah Chang, Christine Widmann, Sean Eilertson,
Gregory Breeze, Rachel Johnson, Blake Sheldon, Gustavo Echeverria
Jonathan P. Cayer	Furniture sales
Pam Sedoris	More Time for You
Bill Basham, Conway Berkley,	National Center for Health Statistics
Evy Cancel, Sheila Carlos, Ernesto Casares, Ruth Coffey, Barbara Coffman, Patricia Cooley, Sharon Craig, Linda Dalton, Kimberly Dyson, Patti Fossum, Barbara Jennings, Greta Knecht, Jill Krudwig, Kathy LePage, Patricia Longoria, Alicia Macioch, Roberto Mercado, Ana Mitchell, Carlotts Segura, Sharon Smoot, Pam Spalding, Evelyn Townsend, Laura Voyles, Kathy Woodford

The City prohibits soliciting between the hours of 8 p.m. and 9 a.m., and on Sundays and holidays. It is a misdemeanor to solicit at residences where a "No Soliciting" sign has been posted. If you see someone going door to door whom you suspect is working without the proper permit, please call the City of Powell Police Department at 614.885.5005. Granting a permit to an applicant does not imply a company or product endorsement from the City of Powell.
