Powell, OH: Looking to add a little culture to your life? Look no further than the City of Powell, which is collaborating with the Columbus Museum of Art and ProMusica to bring "Art Around Town" to the Municipal Building (47 Hall St.) on Saturday, Feb. 27 from noon to 4 p.m.

This free family program will showcase one piece of art from the Museum's collection – a painting titled "The Zoo (Menagerie at Central Park)" by Middleton Manigault. A CMA docent-led conversation about the painting will take place from noon to 1 p.m.

From 1 to 4 p.m., the program will feature a variety of family activities, including puppet making, gallery games, the music of ProMusica and art challenges where participants have the chance to win prizes. It is open to the public and no registration is required.

"This is a great opportunity to bring a unique cultural event to the City of Powell," said Public Information Officer Jeff Robinson. "We're looking forward to working with the Columbus Museum of Art and hope this will be the first of many such opportunities."
